"Catherine Dunn is a skilled, diligent and exceptional proof editor. I would highly recommend her for your writing projects." – R. K. Law, author of the Sagalands series

- I am a copy-editor and proofreader specialising in working with self-published authors.
- I have experience of editing fiction across a range of genres. I am happy to work on erotica and pornography.
- In the non-fiction arena I specialise in the arts and humanities.

Training and qualifications

- Society for Editors and Proofreaders (SfEP) Proofreading Progress and Copy-Editing Progress training courses.
- SfEP editorial test – passed with a mark of 95%.
- BA (Hons) in Fine Art (Painting) from Loughborough University.

Professional affiliations

- Professional Member of the SfEP.

Additional experience

- I run a business helping authors with all aspects of self-publishing and ebook distribution from cover design to marketing.
- I have experience preparing manuscripts for ebook conversion as well as for print.
- I offer typesetting/book design using Adobe InDesign.
- I spent 15 years working in the not-for-profit sector and have lots of experience of writing and editing websites, blog posts, social media posts and corporate documents.
